Selection of Teas

Our tea is supplied by Camellia's Tea House – an artisan producer and importer, hand blending its teas here in London.

Just as with wine, tea is influenced by soil type and climate, in addition to differences in the farming and production process. It is thought there are around 1500 variants of tea, produced in 36 countries.

We have carefully selected 30 exceptional teas for your enjoyment, including our own signature blends and very special premium rare teas.

Stafford Signature Blends

Specially selected by the team here at The Stafford, we offer four bespoke signature blends, which one will you try?

Stafford English Breakfast Blend

A full bodied, sturdy tea with delicate flowery and spicy undertones, made with high altitude grown broken orange pekoe black teas and a touch of Chinese Keemun Tea.

St James's Blend

A wonderful fragrant and smokey black fusion tea, with hints of golden syrup and subtle flowery undertones. The blend combines broken orange pekoe black teas with the most distinct Lapsang Souchong Tea (where the tea leaves are hung in baskets over smoking pine wood fires to dry out); the result is a wonderful dark fusion tea which is ideal for pairing with meat.

Queen's Stafford Blend

The Queen's Stafford blend is a lovely balance between a refreshing and bright Keemun Tea and the citrusy notes and flowery fragrance of oil of Bergamot, orange blossoms, rose petals and jasmine bai mao huo tea.

Oyster Digestive Blend

With a base of clean, pure Japanese Sencha tea, the Oyster digestive blend is a wonderful digestive tea with an element of sweetness and fragrance of lemongrass and lemon verbena. The addition of lavender and rose hips presents a floral undertone which is balanced out with the slight bitterness of hibiscus.

Green Tea

Japan Sencha

Sencha, which means 'steamed tea', is by far the most popular tea in Japan. It has a tender and sweetish note, with vegetal flavours with strong grassy notes and a hint of pine nuts to finish.

Semi-shaded Matcha

This is a ceremonial matcha, a classic tea used in the traditional Japanese tea ceremony. This carefully grown and powdered, semi-shaded tea has a slightly nutty taste with a harmonious balance of bitter-sweet. Whisking creates a deep green, bubbly texture.

White Teas

China Pai Mu Tan

Also known as White Peony, this Chinese white tea from the Fujian province is well-known for its delicate and refreshing flavour. The multi-coloured leaves, ranging from faint green to pale brown, create a clear, light yellow cup with a pleasantly sweet aroma and smooth, mellow flavour with a hint of spiciness and even a touch of nuttiness. A definite favourite among white tea connoisseurs.

Black Teas

Darjeeling Jungpana Supreme 2nd Flush

Much sought after among connoisseurs of Darjeeling vintage, Jungpana is a tiny, beautiful and renowned garden nestled in the hills of the Kurseong Valley, Darjeeling, India. The garden is located on a steep slope near the Goomtee estate, which makes it incredibly remote and accessible only by foot. The tea has delightful hints of almond and walnut, a smooth texture and distinct fruit notes with a delightful long finish.

Assam Bargang

Assam Bargang tea comes from an estate located on the north banks of the Brahmaputra river in the Sonipur district in Northern India. Full bodied and robust with creamy texture and malty undertones, it is perfect for those looking for a more powerful Assam brew. Dark golden brown with some viscosity and perfect with milk.

Earl Grey

Earl Grey's distinct flavour is a result of combining high quality Chinese black tea and oil of bergamot, originally used to protect the flavour from mould and tar during long sea voyages. This beautifully scented tea with its flowery and citrusy flavour remains the embodiment of the finest English tea.

Tregothnan

Tregothnan is Britain's first tea estate. Sitting eight miles from the coast with the deep sea creek of the Fal Estuary running through the estate, the warm and wet conditions are perfect for a thriving tea plantation. The Afternoon Tea blend is light and exotic, with hand-plucked Tregothnan and the finest imported Darjeeling leaves. Quintessentially British and delicately refreshing with invigorating citrus notes.

Oolong Teas

Tie Guan Yin

Tie Guan Yin, or the "Iron Goddess of Mercy", is considered to one of the most famous Chinese teas. Chai

An Indian black tea that has been infused with a range of traditional spices to produce a deliciously spicy and warming brew. It is often brewed in hot milk, known as Chai Latte, to produce a healthy and much more interesting alternative to coffee. Featuring a wonderfully balanced plethora of Indian spices with predominantly cinnamon and clove taste and a spicy ginger finish.
